
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface / 7

Antanas Andrijauskas. Introduction. The Origins of Existential Thinking and the Spread of Ideas / 11

Part One. INTERWAR AND DIASPORA PHILOSOPHERS ON EXISTENTIALISM / 73

Antanas Maceina. Analysis of Existence / 74

Juozas Girnius. The Existential Search for Truth / 86

Vosylius Sezemanas. The Philosophy of Existentialism / 93

Vincent Vyčinas. Unfolding the Problem of Dasein / 102

Algis Mickūnas. Heidegger on the Origins of the Work of Art and the End of Aesthetics / 109

Part Two. THE FUNDAMENTAL IDEAS OF EXISTENTIAL THINKING / 133

Arvydas Šliogeris. The Historical Meaning of Existential Thinking / 134

Jonas Repšys. Karl Jaspers and the Social and Theoretical Assumptions of Existentialism / 144

Tomas Sodeika. The Birth of Existential Truth from the Spirit of Despair / 153

Nerijus Stasiulis. The Body and Ex-istential Thinking / 173

Augustinas Dainys. Existential Interpretation of the Truth / 182

Part Three. THE ORIGIN AND DIFFUSION OF EXISTENTIAL THINKING / 201

Vaida Asakavičiūtė. Freedom as an Aspiration for Existence in Kierkegaard's Philosophy / 202

Stanislovas Mostauskis. Some Reflections on the Origins of Existentialism and Søren

Kierkegaard's Portrait of the Madman / 213

Žilvinas Svigaris. The Existential Panesthetic Philosophical Motives of Friedrich Nietzsche / 227

Henrikas Pupelis. Philosophical Roots of Existential Psychology and the Importance of Them in Today's World / 242

Marius Kundrotas. The Dialectic of Singularity and Commonality in the Thought of the Predecessors and Creators of Existentialism / 259

Elina Naujokaitienė. The Idea of Sovereignty in Jean Paul Sartre's Existentialism / 279

Part Four. HUMAN EXISTENCE FROM A COMPARATIVIST POINT OF VIEW / 295

Audrius Beinorius. Nothingness of Existentialism and Buddhist Emptiness: Why Jean-Paul Sartre is not a Buddhist / 296

Naglis Kardelis. To Think in a Different Way: On the Dialogue between Existentialism and Essentialism / 318

Rasius Makselis. Interpretations of the Phenomenon of Death in the Texts of Martin Heidegger, Emmanuel Levinas and Paul Ricoeur / 335

Agnieška Juzefovič. The Problem of Emptiness in Martin Heidegger's Philosophy: A Comparative Analysis / 350

Žilvinas Vareikis. Existential and Environmental Perspectives between Nature and Human Being / 370

Part Five. ABSURDITY, HOPE AND FAITH / 397

Pranciškus Xaveras Cazali. Absurd and Hope in the Philosophy of Existentialism / 398

Rūta Marija Vabalaitė. Karl Jaspers' Thoughts on Existenz and Selfhood and their Reflections in the Interactive Art / 410

Lina Vidauskytė. Gabriel Marcel's Philosophy of Concreteness and Humiliation Techniques / 423

Bronislovas Kuzmickas. Jacques Maritain's Existential Thomism / 434

Odeta Žukauskienė. Lev Shestov's Questions for Existence: between Absurd and Faith / 450

Part Six. THE LITHUANIAN EXPERIENCE OF EXISTENTIAL CONSCIOUSNESS CLARIFICATION / 467

Bronislovas Genzelis. Existentialism in Lithuania / 468

Dalius Jonkus. The Concept of Human Existence in Vasily Seseman's Metaphysical-anthropological Manuscripts / 477

Vytautas Martinkus. Existential Experience of My Literary Generation (7th decade of the 20th Century): Authentic and Second-hand / 491

Kęstutis Šapoka. Every Word Hurts: the (anti)existentialism by Sigitas Krutulyš-Sygis / 512

English Summaries / 533

About the authors / 548

Index of personal names / 555

Contents in English / 559