

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	6
Introduction	9
Chapter I. Drama of Statehood and Its Landscapes 16
The Concept of Lithuanian Homeland. Transcendental Landscapes	17
The Call from the Depths as a Leitmotif in Baltic Poetry and Music during the Era of Soviet Occupation	31
The Secondary in the Concept of Resistance and Processes of Modernism: Rethinking Baltic Minimalism	42
Catastrophe of Lithuania in the Poetry of Émigrés: Apocalyptic Meaning of the Soviet Occupation and the Affected Archetypes (the Discourse between the Works of B. Brazdžionis and A. Mackus)	54
Statehood in Contemporary Lithuanian Cultural Discourse	73
Literature in the Political Context of the 1990s: Return of the Non-occupied	90
Fairy Tale of Kings : Lithuania Between M. K. Čiurlionis' Visions and the 20th-Century Political Contexts	106
National Versus Historical Identity in the Lithuanian context	122
Destinies of the State and Its Writers in History. Dimensions of Their Tragedy and Success in Lithuanian Literature	131
Anti-Empire: A Visual Reconstruction of the World by Lithuanian Thinkers in the Spirit of Minor Nations Liberation	151
Chapter II. Historicism versus Metamodernism 170
The Road of Romanticism in Lithuanian Culture and Its Turn into the Baltic Identity	171
Non-fiction from a Historical Perspective: Situation of Lithuanian Statemen Amid Tragic Events of 1940–1941	185
The Epoch that Did Not Happen. The Poem of the Perished and Its Relationship to History	197

Linguistic Aspect of Statehood in the Latest Lithuanian Literature: The Comeback of History	210
Body and Soul: Controversies of Aesthetics of Postmodernism in Post-Soviet Space	222
Folkloristic Archetype Versus Sovietism in Marcelijus Martinaitis' The Ballads of Kukutis	237
Modernism as Europeanism in Lithuanian Music. Algirdas Martinaitis Case	255
Reconceptualisation of Lithuanian National Identity Before the Romanticism Period in K. Sabaliauskaitė's Silva rerum	270
Historical Inspiration of Rzeczpospolita (Commonwealth of Two Nations) for Contemporary Political Lithuanian Identity based on Kristina Sabaliauskaitė's Silva rerum	282
The Visionaries of Vilnius and the Lithuanian Version of Metamodernism	294
Russia Versus Europe: The Collision of Civilisations in the Works of Contemporary Lithuanian Writer Kristina Sabaliauskaitė	307
Global Aspects of Lithuanian American Identity	327
 Chapter III. Music meets with the Mannerheim line	348
Metaphor in the Context of Baltic Music: The Idea of Eternal Return	349
Nietzsche's Shadow over Baltic Minimalism, Based on Mindaugas Urbaitis' Der Fall Wagner	361
Images of the Apocalypse and War in the 21st-century Lithuanian Music	373
The Music of Lithuanian Composer Ričardas Kabelis: Signs and Four Codes	390
Diverse Intermedial Aspects in the Interpretation of R. M. Rilke's Poetry by Lithuanian Composer Onutė Narbutaitė	403
Phenomenology of the Front Line in Lithuanian Contemporary Cultural Landscape	413
A Premonition of War in Lithuanian Music and Literature (2021–2022)	425
Between Light and Darkness: Meaningful Projections of Lithuanian Music in the Field of the Present	432
The Soundscape of Silenced After-war Front Lines in Music Images by Vytautas Germanavičius Red Trees (2018), Dedicated to Lithuanian Freedom Fighter General Adolfas Ramanauskas-Vanagas	443
 Afterword	449
Index	451