

CONTENTS

CONTEMPORARY REFLECTION OF TIME

Danutė Bacevičiūtė. Preface ... 7

I. NOTION OF TIME: HISTORY AND THE PRESENT

Naglis Kardelis. Moving Image of Eternity: Time and Its Faces in Plato's Philosophy ... 11

Tomas Kiauka. What means to reflect Time? ... 37

Danutė Bacevičiūtė. Phenomenological Practice, or Once Again on the Attempts to describe Primal Temporal Experience ... 75

II. SPACE AND TIME

Kristupas Sabolius. How Much Time does One need to leave the Room? ... 75

Monika Saukaitė. Motionless Figures in Motion. Time in the Paintings of Šarūnas Sauka ... 92

III. TRANSLATION

Jörn Rüsen. The Culture of Time. Towards a Typology of Temporal Creation of Meaning ... 107

IV. DISCOURSES OF MEMORY

Arūnas Sverdiolas. Monument and Time: Viollet-le-Duc and Ruskin Controversy ... 134

Jurga Jonutytė. Articulation of Sensual Experience in the Narratives of Former Conflicts ... 167

Renata Šukaitytė. The Memory of a Day Gone by and the Disappearing Present in the Cinematic Timescapes of Šarūnas Bartas ... 183

Nijolė Keršytė. Memory and Repetition. From Tension to Conflict ... 198

V. VIRTUALITY OF TIME

Audronė Žukauskaitė. The Notion of Time-Image in Gilles Deleuze's Film Philosophy ... 227

Gintautas Mažeikis. To embody the Other Possible World: According to the Letters of M. Tsvetaeva to N. Hajdukiewicz ... 244

Mantas Kvedaravičius. Facial Presence ... 269

VI. REVIEW

Naglis Kardelis. Exposures of Lithuanian Philosophy and Culture ... 285

CONTRIBUTORS ... 291

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS ... 295